SENIORS

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Jenny Horning, Secretary; Tim Rossman, Vice President; Tim Sand, President; Missy Frost, Treasurer.

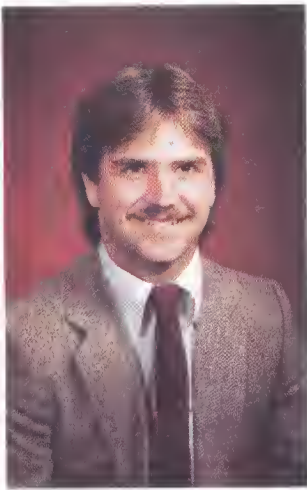

BELOW: One thing that sets Seniors apart from everyone else is their favorite class—Government. Staying on top of current events for the quizzes is an extra challenge to the regular course work.

LEFT: By the expression on her face, it appears as though Lori Striker has found something more interesting than her lunch in the cafeteria. The new ala carte line offered by the cooks made lunch time a real treat.

RIGHT: Who says that hand towels are plain, drab, and have a limited use? Kim Gasuras used her creativity to display a stylish variation using an everyday hand towel.

VARIATIONS ON LIFE

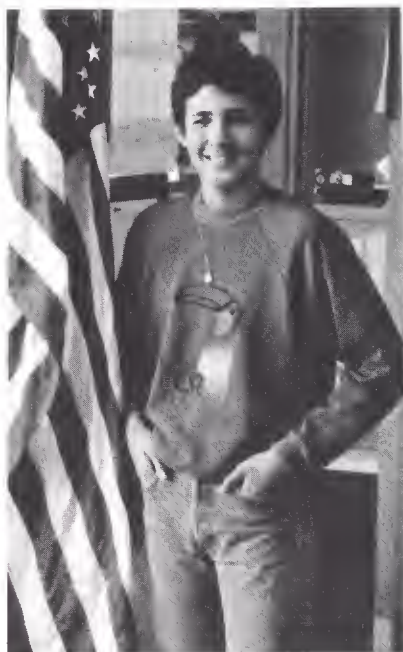

Straight from the land of raging bulls and matadors came Colonel Crawford's year exchange student, Carlos Torres. Coming from the capital city of Spain, Madrid, Carlos' first noticeable difference between his home and here was life in the country. He came to the U.S. hoping to learn English, to meet new people, and to discover new places. In comparing our school system to his, Carlos says that we definitely have more of a choice in course offerings and extra-curricular activities, that he never moves to different classes, and that his studies are much harder. Wanting to become a pilot or an aeronautics engineer, Carlos has plans to further his education at college. There are five members in his family: his father, Carlos; his mother, Suani; his brother, Alberto; and his grandmother. Besides his family, he misses his dog, Sokee, his friends, his warmer weather, and his native language. Carlos leaves these Spanish words with the students of Colonel Crawford: Gracia por la acogida que me oisteis. Este ano ha sido muy importante para mi, gracias. Gracias por haberme dado a conocer una nueva lengua y cultura desconocida para mi. Translated it means: Thanks for the reception you gave me. This year has been very important for me, thank you. Thanks for showing me a new language and culture unknown to me.

Que clase de primavera es esta? This is what you might have heard from our exchange student, Diego Illingworth, from Quayaquil, Ecuador. Translated it means: What kind of spring is this? The reason that Diego would have said this is that he had never seen snow before he came to Ohio, and he arrived on one of the worst winter days in February. He was at Colonel for three months during his break from school. Diego wanted to come to the U.S. because he wanted to learn more English as he wants to study in an American college to become an electronics engineer like his father and brother. In Ecuador, his school is much harder. He attends a Catholic school for all boys and he usually has five hours of homework each evening. In his school there are three course choices; Physics/Math, which he takes; Chemical/Biology; and Sociology. His family members are: his father, Ricardo; his mother, Fabiola; his sister, Maria Gabiella; and his brother, Daniel. Diego missed his parents and his dog, Blacky. He also missed going to the beach to his other house on the weekends and will miss all his new friends in the U.S.

For Jackie Stuckert, being 2nd Runner-Up to the Bratwurst Queen has given her senior year a different meaning. This past year, fifteen girls went out for the competition. Jackie, along with the other girls, had to first go through the preliminaries, where the top ten were chosen and then through the finals, where the top three were chosen. Jackie went through some tough judging as the judges were looking for personality, conversational adeptness, appearance, poise, and her German costume. During her senior year, Jackie will travel all over Ohio; she has already been to the Tomato Festival in Reynoldsburg, the Apple Festival in Jackson, the Swiss Festival in Sugar Creek, the Antique Festival in Millersburg, and a mall show in Columbus. She encourages any interested girl to enter this pageant because beauty is only skin deep, and it's the inside person that really shines!

Hard at work taking a test are Troy McCallister, John Scott, Sonya Sauselen, and Dan Shealy; while Lori Young, Brian Mollencopf, and Shane Wilcox are already finished.

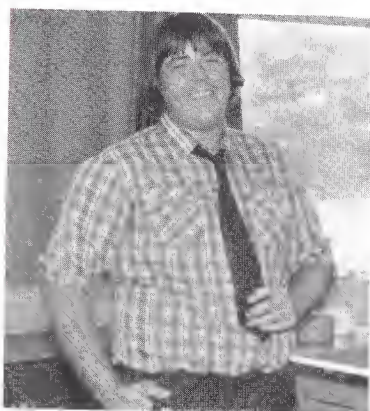

Mr. Althouse is glad to take time out of his busy schedule to help students like Tonja Malone.

During the fall open house, Mary Jo Howell kept from being bored by talking to the plants she was selling for Horticulture class.

Making a grand entrance is one way
Troy McCallister gets attention, another is running cross country.

Because Angie Carroll likes to do people's hair, she is taking cosmetology at Pioneer.

Rob Sand and Valerie Seif have found some of the better advantages of studying.

Carl Dovenbarger may be laughing now, but he hopes that his isn't a hint that Shan Fortner wants her ring back.

Ted Heinlen and Jodi Luke share a joke as they leave class.

GET A KICK OUT OF '86

Melissa Sherman and Michelle King take time out on "blanket day" to keep warm like many other students did.

Todd Martin, Lee Coffman, and Mike Motter hope that Cindy Britton has the right answers on her Chemistry paper because if she doesn't, then neither do they!

Senior Jack Bordner and Juniors Beth Steiner and Jay Stuckman were just three of the Colonel Crawford students attending Pioneer who returned to talk to the Sophomore English classes about the advantages of the school.

Usually lunch conversations prove to be very relaxing and enjoyable, but what Lisa Flitcraft (second from right) is saying has seemingly put Steve Sinden, Bill Hartman, and Vicki Shultz in a sober mood. Todd Petty, Doug Burkhart, and Andy Sloan enjoy a good laugh during the lunch period.

That face! That beautiful made-up face! Posing for "Freak-Out Wynford" Day are Mike Hedrick who has a real flair for fashion, and also "Jungle Queen" Mary Wendelken who just got a call from the wild to head for the cafeteria.

Terry Holzwarth and Kathy Dyer sport their favorite hats during basketball season when the cheerleaders designated "Tip Your Hat" day to the Eagles to send them on their way to a win.

Geometry! What a breeze! Sophomores Tami Reager, Eunice Fox, Heather Amstutz, Teresa Young, Amy Lutz, Amy Hoepf, Ralph Hart, Steve Cramer, Junior Kim Bursby, Sheila Schroeder, and Bobby Zier relax after finishing a test—just another A for the day!

While taking a break during lunch time, Kathy Foreman and Amy Harmon have a nice chat.

Everybody likes to go to the freshmen basketball games, even the sophomores like Julie Shealy, Lisa McNair, and Andi Sturtz.

During study hall Joe Kelly keeps busy doing homework.

Catsup, mustard, what have you? This is a daily occurrence in the cafeteria. It's a battle right down to the last drop of honey. The cooks may take the time to prepare the meals, but we still add the finishing touch; and Jerry Morris does the job just right.

Susie Bell keeps her brother Tom company while he cleans the lunch time dishes.

FEELING RELAXED

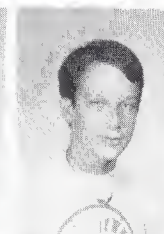

Yearbook photographer and mathematics student Mark McGrew caught Tony Lipscomb (behind folder), Arlene DeVore, Rob VanScoit, Doug Burkhart, and David Rettig as they crammed for the American High School Mathematics Examination given every February. The team scored 196 points for a 227 place finish out of 278 schools.

Every sophomore "looks forward" to English 10 some time during his school day. Randy Kidd, Brian Houk, and Tim Bogan rally around Mrs. Diebler's door because they don't want to be late!?!

Ted Karl works on one of his three final programs to either compute salary, list cars by license number to see if they've been stolen, or compute total sales for salespersons.

David Pfeifer was one of the lucky freshmen who got to spend two-thirds of the Personal Typing class on an electric typewriter.

"Hi, mom!" "Hi, dad!" Sound like someone coming home from school? For several students, those words are spoken while IN school because their parents could be the superintendent, principal of the Intermediate building, or a teacher.

Scott Ferrell and Chris Roseberry have had to endure students' questions about snow days and general discipline from other students, but both indicate they enjoy having a parent who is a school authority.

Jody Sherman was "fortunate" enough to have her dad for science both years at the Intermediate building and considers student teasing as just fun.

Brian Kalb feels his dad ignores him at school because he sees enough of him at home, while Lynn Huber likes having her dad here in case she needs money or permission to run home for something.

Freshmen Nicole Diebler (at right), and Eric and Ryan Sparks are just experiencing the "joy" of having a parent as a teacher. After Nicole finishes with her dad in science, she will learn English 10 from her mother. She knows she can get good answers about science at home where most of the discussion centers around school because everyone spends his day there. Eric and Ryan are split on whether or not they like having a parent as a teacher. They both feel that their actions are limited by their mother's presence and indicate that students ask about pop quizzes and tease them, too.

3 - RING SHOW

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: DARE TO WITNESS THE MOST EXCITING, BEST-CONDITIONED, ENERGETIC, BEST-COACHED, OUTSTANDING ATHLETIC PROGRAM.

BELIEVING PAYS OFF

Tim Rossman (52), Denis Hoover (72), Aaron Fogle (64), Tim Bogan (80), and Tim Sand (50), come back to help Lee Coffman as he carries the ball against Elgin. The 12-7 win over the Comets was especially sweet after last year's year-end loss that took the NCC title from us.

Larry Agin held the ball for almost all of Jim Dennison's extra point conversions and field goal attempts. Jim converted for 19 extra points and 2 field goals. He also helped the offense by catching 5 passes for 67 yards.

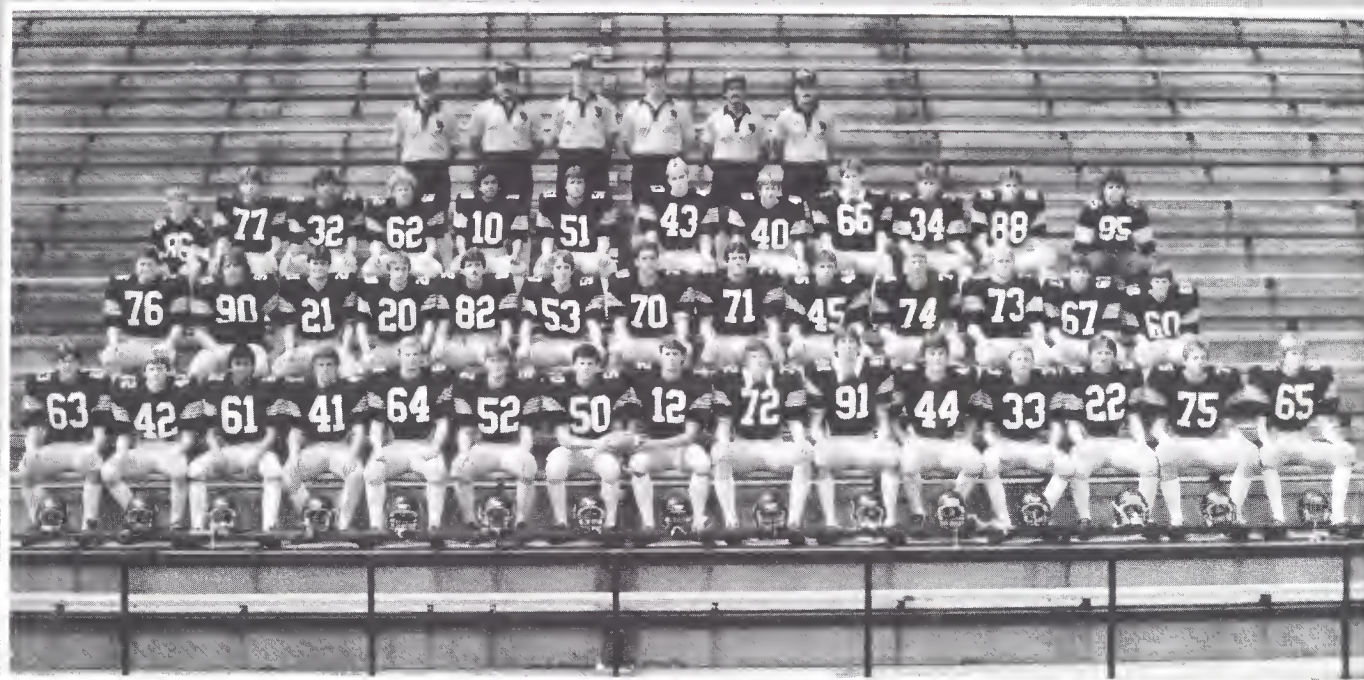

Tim Rossman (52), Chris Harris (12), and Rick Balliett (42) are a few of the visible Eagle defenders who graded out well against Riverdale. The Eagle defense held the Falcons scoreless in the 17-0 win. The '84 Eagle defense holds the school record by holding its opponents to 1,000 yards on 411 plays—an average of 2.4 yards per play. Opponents only rushed for 417 total yards on 280 rushes for a 1.5 average per play. There were only 35 points scored against the Eagle defense all season.

Tim Dennison has one thing on his mind—a sack! He spent the evening chasing one of the better running quarterbacks in the league, Ronnie Rayburn from Elgin.

TACKLING OUR SHARE

This sequence of pictures shows how important conditioning, strength, and desire are to a successful football team. The photographer captured Lee Coffman dragging a Riverdale defender across the goal line with him as he scores one of the 2 touchdowns in the game. The Eagles blanked the Falcons 17-0 on their quest for the NCC title.

OF THE TITLE

It's pep rally time guys, and it's time to get psyched for the game tonight. This year the cheerleaders tried extra hard to get everyone into the football mood and ready to come out to the games on Friday nights! so everyone, let's hear it for the Eagles!

As the most frequent ball carrier on the team, Larry Agin had to contend with defenses keying on him.

Coach Dvorak may fly off the handle occasionally, telling the team to get its act together, and Cindy Britton, the statistician, might have to write down another mistake; but it all pays off in the long run when the Eagles become the NCC Conference champions. The team under the coaching of Gary Dvorak had a very productive season, winning nine out of ten games. A season like this gives the whole school a reason to get excited.

Rod Daiber didn't carry the ball very much early in the year; however, as the season progressed and defenses started keying on Larry Agin and Lee Coffman, Rod was pressed into action. His 45 carries netted him 233 yards and added 3 touchdowns to the offensive stats. Rod was particularly successful against Wynford, grading out at 90% in our 5th victory over the Royals in 5 years.

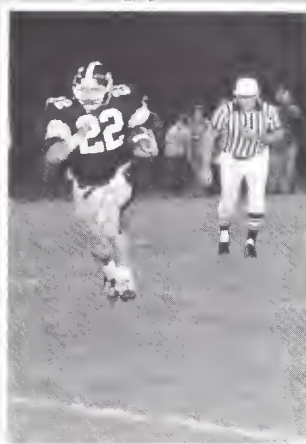

SENIORS LEAVE

Larry Agin and Lee Coffman complete their offensive assignments while Tim Rossman (52) pass blocks for quarterback Chris Harris. Tim was only one of the many linemen who protected Chris in the pocket giving him time to spot open receivers downfield. Chris holds the record as the all-time leading passer by completing 60% of his passes each year. He passed for 416 yards and two touchdowns this season, while scoring five times in 1983.

Quarterback Chris Harris was especially good at hiding the ball and running the option play. Defenses were always coming from behind to stop the offense. Chris broke an option play to the open field, was tackled from behind, and fumbled the ball. Elgin recovered the fumble but was unable to capitalize on the play, thanks to our strong defense.

Larry Agin carried the ball 169 times during the season and gained 737 yards for a 4.36 average while scoring 7 touchdowns. He also attempted 3 passes for a total of 28 yards and a 9.3 average. Showing more versatility, Larry was on the receiving end of 9 passes for 48 yards.

The '84 Eagle varsity scored 188 points on 545 plays while holding opponents to 35 points on 411 plays. It was rewarding to share the best overall record with the 1978 team, and the NCC title, last won in 1980.

BIG SHOES TO FILL

Lee Coffman struggles to keep his balance in the season opener against Mt. Gilead. Tim Rossman (52) and Tim Sand (50) pull to block for him. The Eagles' 28-6 victory over the Indians was especially nice because in past years the Indians have always played us tough.

Tim Sand, one of the co-captains, enjoys some time off the field while watching his team pile up a 9-1 season and a share of the NCC title.

The offensive time out proves successful for Coach Dvorak as he confers with Tim Rossman (helmet off), Denis Hoover (72), Jim Dennison (82), and Larry Agin, behind him. The 19-0 win over the Buckeye Central Bucks is always sweet!

Chris Roe (44), Todd Hout (73), and Jim Dennison (82), come in to assist Rick Balliett (42) on a tackle during the Elgin game.

FROSH MEET CHALLENGE

Flying through the air, Kevin Friend refuses to go down as all the defenses soon learned. He carried the ball 75 times for a season total of 415 yards and a 5.53 average while scoring 3 touchdowns and 10 extra point conversions.

At the end of each game Coaches Thorpe and Goldsmith talk with the team about being good winners as well as good losers. Fortunately, the good-loser speech came only after the Galion game. Bruce Johnson, Kyle Mullins, Jon Crall, Nathan Fannin, Eric Kocher, Eric Sparks, Jeff Dyer, Troy Shawber, Brett Mollencopf, and Chris Flohr are a few of the visible team members.

Even though the unseasonably warm fall was great for WATCHING football, it was quite another thing for PLAYING football. Ryan Sparks, who suffered heat exhaustion in the first half, watches his team defeat the Royals after the visitors scored on the opening kickoff.

Steve Fauser ran for 32 yards after intercepting the Mohawk offense to score a touchdown. The team went on to win 24-8.

With open field in front of him, Mark Robinson gains yardage for the offense. As quarterback, he passed for 42% and scored 1 touchdown.

Eric Kocher assists on a tackle while Nathan Fannin and Kent Rachel come in for a piece of the action. The Eagles won the season opener against Wynford 16-13.

The 1984 Volleyball team received many compliments throughout the season from officials and opposing coaches on their competitive play. Their record was not indicative of the intensity that the matches displayed. The Lady Eagles record could very well have ended at 16-6 instead of 6-16 with 80% of their games going down to the wire. The teams are learning how to win, and although they will miss this year's Seniors, they are looking forward to next year.

Rory Humphrey chases Craig Palenshus during a home meet. Rory's best time of 19:54 came at the Wynford Invitational. Craig joined the team after the season began and ran a good race at the NCC finishing with a time of 20:08.

The County meet proved to be Kim Skowronski's best race for she finished with a time of 21:58 for a 10th place finish. She qualified for the district where she finished 46th.

Freshmen Elaine Gebhardt and Barb Bowin show promise with their times of 25:22 and 25:50 during the season. Elaine was consistent throughout the season while Barb dropped a minute off her time at the meet against Buckeye, Lucas, and Mansfield Senior.

Both Daron Watts and Bill Hartman dropped their times from 19 minutes at the Wynford Invitational to 18:40 and 18:46 at the County and Northmor Invitational.

Scott Ferrell's 21:54 finish at the Wynford Invitational was improved upon at the NCC meet where he finished with a time of 21:04.

Ramon Shealy's 30th place finish helped the team finish 3rd at the Ontario Invitational. His 16th place at the County meet with a time of 17:47 was bested with a 17:39 finish at the Sectional.

The 1985 Cross Country season saw many team members steadily improve their times. Although the teams as a group didn't finish with outstanding records, they were competitive in every event with a lot of promise for the future.

TOWARD THE TITLE

LEFT: Marc Dowler, right, isn't trying to do the same dance Troy McCallister and Ty Hoyles are doing! Marc was usually one of the top 7 Crawford runners in our dual meets. Troy placed 4th at the Sectional with a time of 16:22 while Ty placed 5th on his heels at 16:23. Ty went on to place 13th in the district with a time of 16:44 and finish in 24th place at the state "AA" competition.

Tracie Escue was able to drop almost 3 minutes off her time during the season, while for the second time in as many years on the team, Cindy Britton qualified for the state "A" competition by placing 5th at the district with a time of 20:15 and 3rd in the sectional with a 20:19. Cindy won the county meet with her best time for the season of 20:01. Shannon Steiner dropped a minute off her time in the County meet and finished 6th —this was before she realized she had broken her foot! Diane McMichael dropped almost 3 minutes off her time and ran a 25:08 County meet while Shan Fortner finished 41st in district competition with a time of 22:16.

Chris Roseberry was a consistent runner during the season with times ranging from 18:28 to 19:00 at the NCC meet.

Brett McCartney's NCC finish at 21:10 was more than 2 minutes off his time earlier in the season.

Kim Crall ran the county meet in a time of 22:30 finishing her in 14th place. She qualified for district team competition by finishing 33rd in the NCC meet.

Bobby Zier finished 15th in the County meet with a time of 17:44, dropping more than a minute off his NCC finish.

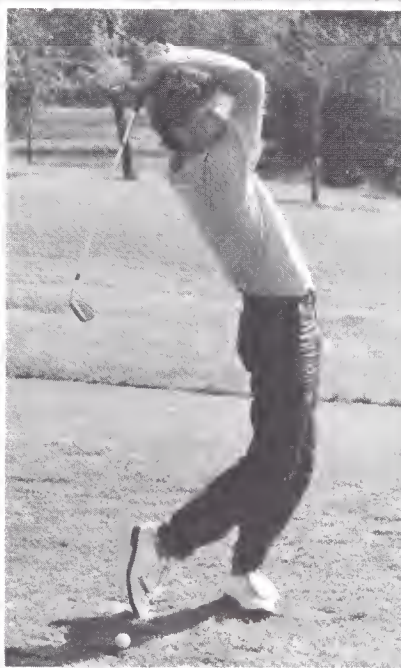

The Northmor Invitational saw Jon Cress run his best time of 20:45.

SLICING OFF

MATT ROBINSON just missed this put, but he couldn't have missed too many because he led the team with the low average of 40.5 and was in the top 4 golfers in all 18 rounds he played. Matt won an NCC medal by placing 8th in the conference and he really put on a spectacular show during this his second year of golf. He set a junior class record of 35 strokes against Ridgedale and was voted most valuable by his teammates.

SCOTT ETZINGER recorded his season low round of 44 against Wynford. This round helped bring his average to 50. and give him the most improved honors for the team.

Four years' experience on the team helped MIKE DILLER earn his 12th place rank in the NCC with an average of 45.11. He placed in the top 4 at 17 rounds and had a low round of 38 at the Sectionals.

The golf team enjoyed a great deal of success this season. The varsity squad shared the NCC title for the first time since 1975. The varsity averaged 7 strokes better than their opponents, while the reserve average match score was 10 better than their opponents.

A SHARE OF THE TITLE

Freshmen MIKE SPANGLER lays claim to the lowest average of 48.38. The reserve win over Riverdale was due in part to Mike's lowest round of 46 for the season.

CHRIS MILLER returned to the greens this year with a 53.43 average. His low game of 46 against Seneca East helped win the reserve match.

BRIAN KALB had an average of 44.5 during his 4th year on the team with his lowest round of 40 in the match against River Valley. He ranked 15th in the NCC and was in the top 4 golfers at the end of 14 matches. He had 4 saves which means the team would have lost those matches without his scores.

TROY HOYLES' friends call him "chopper" but it's not because of his golf swing. He maintained a 54 average with a low round of 49.

"TEE"-M EF-"FOR"-T

The NCC ranked BRAD KALB 14th at the end of the season for his 43.28 average. His low round of 39 in the win over Elgin was one of his 3 saves for the season. He enjoyed an excellent second year.

Coach Kalb sets what he hopes is a winning line up for the match against Riverdale that the Eagles ended up winning. Mr. Kalb gave up the golf team after the 1975 season and this is his second year back at the helm. Only a defeat at the hands of Pleasant kept the team from winning the NCC title outright!

52.81 was the second lowest reserve average on the team and ROB VAN SCOIT claims it! His season low 49 wasn't enough to save the win against River Valley, though.

DAVIS PFEIFER'S season low of 47 was one of the good reserve scores that won a close match against Seneca East. David ended the season with a 53.9 average and expects better things next year.

DAN SHEALY, who enjoyed his first year of varsity action this year, maintained an average of 47.5 and was ranked 31st in the NCC. His low round of 42 came in the varsity win 168-222 over Plymouth.

RESERVE CHEERLEADERS: Michelle Bisignano, Aren Rowles, LeAnn Frankenfield, Amy Lutz, Sarah Weir.

WE DON'T MESS AROUND

Living up to their name, the FALL cheerleaders Diane, LeAnn, Dawn, Darla, Sarah, Advisor Mrs. Grove pointing finger, Shellie, and Aren came with cookies and caddied for the golf team during practice. They would have returned to cheer during a match, but cheering makes the team nervous!

The Senior Choir Spaghetti Supper gave the cheerleaders yet one more chance and a different way to show their school spirit and pride by supporting as many groups as they can!

Homecoming was just one of the many times the cheerleaders teamed with the flag corps for a dance routine of "Hang on Sloopy"

Cross country team members Troy McCallister and Doug Wilson show their appreciation to Anissa, Cathy, and Heather for coming to support their team during a meet in addition to supplying cookies for away meets.

Being a cheerleader may look very glamorous to other students and spectators, but if you really think about all you see, you will soon realize that cheering, as our girls interpret it, is very hard work and entails a lot of time and planning. Throughout the season, the girls searched for various ways to add money to the athletic department by helping sell yearbook ads, passing out leaflets at an open house in Galion, and promoting a "Pizza cheer" at the Galion Pizza Hut. Advisor Jody Grove works in the background, thus it is difficult for the yearbook to get a picture of her! Mrs. Grove, along with Mary Erwin and Connie Lutz, organized a car caravan to follow the football team bus to Wynford for the final game of the season. The players were impressed with the amount of support shown and played an excellent game. The squads spend a lot of time behind the scenes making locker decorations and baking cookies, not to mention practicing their cheers, and planning pep rallies and skits. Like everything else, it all looks so easy to those who have never tried it!

SHOOTING OUR SHARE

LEFT: Guard Shane Ash protects the ball against Ridgedale. He exploded later in the season to score 25 points in the 73-51 massacre of the Mt. Gilead Indians. Shane was the second leading free throw shooter in the NCC with 82%; and snared 44 rebounds while playing inside with the big guys. He also scored a 3-point bucket in the NCC All-Star game. RIGHT: The team leading scorer Todd Martin brings the ball down against the Ridgedale Rockets. He led the team with 308 points while connecting on 87 of 102 free throws, including a string of 23 straight. He led the NCC with 87% shooting from the line. He was also credited with 60 rebounds and made 128 assists—averaging 5.6 per game.

OF THE TITLE

LEFT: "Lipes" and "Harry" doing what they do best—playing hard! Todd Laipply (33) led the team with 49 offensive and 132 defensive rebounds and was a key to our inside game. Todd scored 190 points on the season with a very respectable 71% from the line. Chris Harris (31) showed his captain leadership by defending the leading scorers on the other teams. Chris was the second highest scorer on the team with 253 points while averaging 7.4 rebounds per game. Both Seniors showed their poise by sinking crucial foul shots in pressure-packed games. RIGHT: Junior Jay Stuckman averaged 5 rebounds—third only to Harris and Laipply. He shot 62.5 from the line and contributed a total of 140 points. Jay was an invaluable 6th man who came into the game to continue the excellence inside.

Junior Jim Dennison earned his way into a starting position in the middle of the season and held on to it. Jim was an all-around player averaging 5.8 points per game and 3.7 rebounds. His turnover percentage was very low while he averaged 1.6 assists per game.

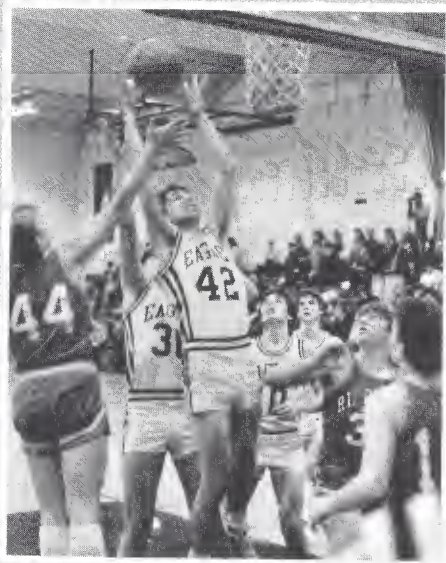

HOW SWEET IT IS!! Time runs out on the Elgin Comets as the Eagles clinch a share of the NCC crown! 1964 was the last time an Eagle team made a run at the title, and that was in the newly-formed, not-quite-complete league. The team went on to win the Sectional tournament championship—something last done in 1972. The season winning streak of 12 is the longest in the school's basketball history!

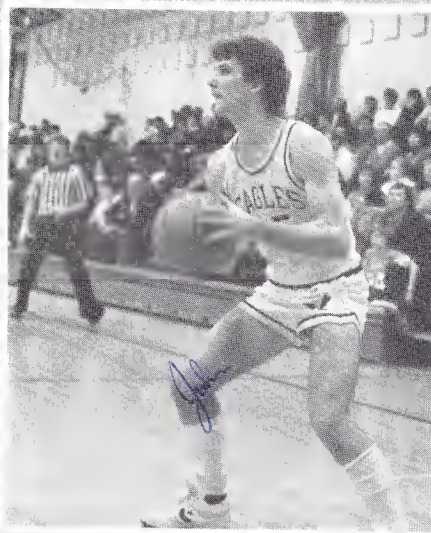

Tim Dennison hit the century mark by scoring 100 points for the season. As the 6th or 7th man, Tim contributed 71 rebounds on the year and 41.5% from the floor. The Rockets are shown here trying to rattle the big man, but to no avail.

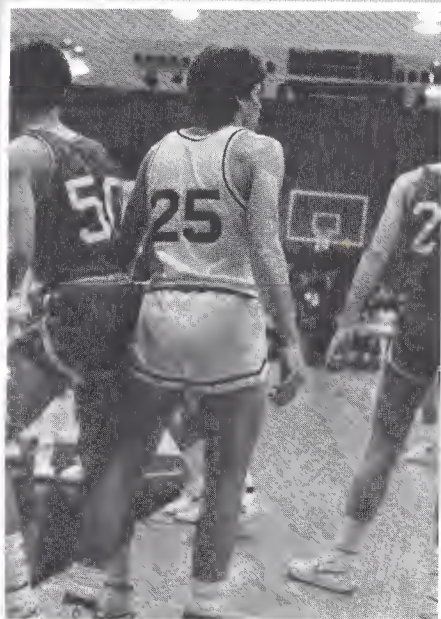

WE'VE COME

Troy Smith scored 12 points in the 51-21 rout against Ridgedale—his season high 16 points came in the season opener against Galion. Troy made 16 assists and grabbed 68 rebounds during the year.

John Scott looks for the best play against a tough Carey reserve team. He scored his season high 13 points against the Blue Devils. John was the leading rebounder with 110 for the year. John saw some varsity action as well.

Lee Coffman snared 100 rebounds for the second highest average of 5.2 per game. He was the second leading scorer on the reserve team with 157 points—7.9 average per game.

Matt Robinson was the team's leading scorer with 186 points and 9.8 average per game. He scored 20 points to shut down the Elgin Comets in the season closer. He shot 70 percent from the line while grabbing 59 rebounds on the year.

A LONG WAY EAGLES!

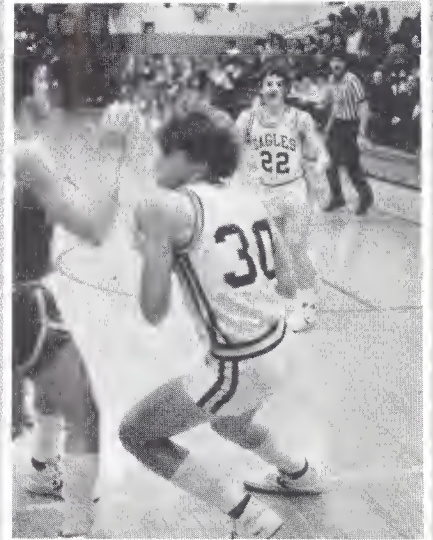

LEFT: This was Toby Coffman's last game before he caught the flu. He had scored 12 points against Northmor the week before and scored 6 points against Ridgedale. He set out the next 2 games and was able to score 11 points against Bucyrus.

BELOW: All-round player Tim Bogan scored 9 points against Ridgedale, but he really likes the floor at Mt. Gilead where he scored his season high 15 points. He grabbed 64 rebounds and his 72% from the free throw line was the team high—he sank 23 of 32.

Freshman Jon Crall works the ball against Ridgedale. John exploded in the game against Elgin and scored 11 points in the 51-42 victory that set the tone for the varsity match up.

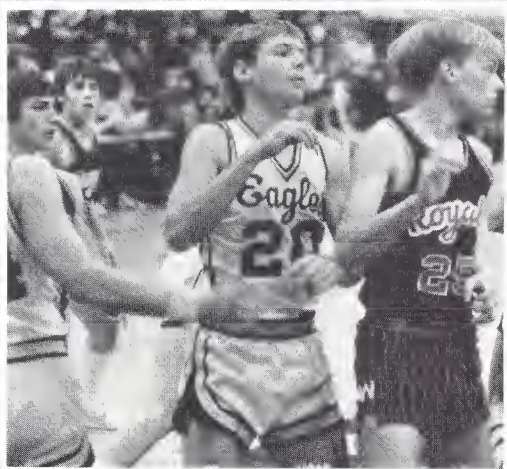

Tom Rossman (30) drives to the basket against Ridgedale, scoring 2 of his 9 points in the game. Tom's field goal and free throw percentages were 69 and 70 for the season. Dan Shealy (22) contributed 33 points during the season and was the 5th leading free throw shooter on the team with a 66% average from the line.

This was a year of many firsts for Colonel Crawford basketball. Team highlights consist of the first NCC Championship in 23 years; first Sectional Championship in 13 years; 12 consecutive wins; first in NCC team defense allowing 52.3 pts. per game; school record for team free throws at 69%; best NCC record in school history; runner-up in first annual CC-BC Holiday Tournament. As individuals and as a team, the level of improvement and competitiveness grew by leaps and bounds. This is easy to see as the Eagles were 5-5 on Jan. 4, 1985, and then reeled off 12 consecutive wins before bowing out in the District tournament. Included in those 12 wins were 6 NCC wins culminating with an NCC Championship, a thrilling triple-overtime win over Clear Fork in Sectional play, and a convincing win over Bucyrus for a Sectional Championship.

The highly successful basketball season was a tribute to the work and dedication of every athlete and establishes respect for Colonel Crawford basketball now and in the future.

A FRESH START

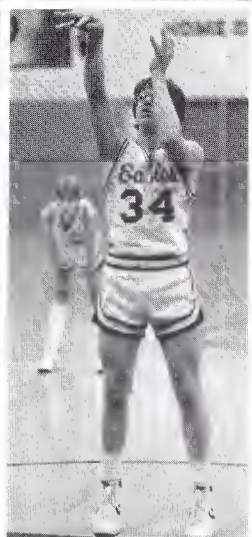

Mike James "mixes it up" with the Royals in the season opener at home. The Royals won 38-28 on our floor and we returned the favor by beating them 40-34 later in the season on their home court.

Steve Ritzhaupt shot 50% from the line and 28% from the floor. Steve scored 60 points during the season.

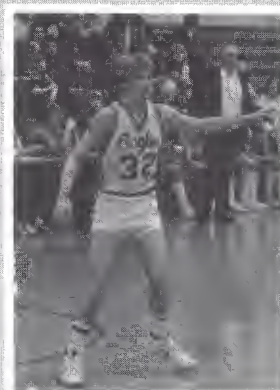

Brian Seybert was 6 of 10 from the line and 33% from the floor. Brian scored 26 points during the season.

Duane Rios scored his season high 4 points against Wynford to end the season with a 28.5 field goal percentage.

Troy Shawber grabbed 21 rebounds while scoring 21 points during the season. He was 50% from the line and 39% from the floor.

Mark Robinson was 35% from the field and 70% from the free throw line. Mark snared 55 offensive and 30 defensive rebounds, while scoring 102 points during the season.

Coach Disbennett discusses some last minute strategy in the first loss of the season. Kevin Friend (42) scored 66 points and was credited with 22 offensive and 32 defensive rebounds. Jeff Dyer (at Kevin's right) scored 216 points while pulling down 43 offensive and 66 defensive rebounds. He had the team high 42.6 field goal percentage and 75 free throw percentage.

Weather played an important part in the girls basketball season, for it forced the cancellation and rescheduling of several games which perhaps kept this team from breaking more school records than it did. Senior leadership proved invaluable as Tina Gingery set several individual and team records while Kim Skowronski now holds the individual scoring record and Vicki Cole holds the single game scoring record.

Season highlights include beating Wynford during the regular season and slipping by much-favored St. Pete's in the opening sectional game. The early season loss to the eventual Class A state champion Buckeye Central team came at the buzzer during overtime.

GETS AGGRESSIVE!

Going after the ball, Justine Harris seems to have found the secret of being a good basketball player as she made 32 out of 97 field goal attempts which gave her one of the highest scoring averages of 33 percent; she had a total of 73 pts. during the season, with a game point average of 4.9.

Looking for someone on the team to help her out, Kim Clady tries not to turn over the ball; she scored a total of 19 pts. for the team with 8 field goals and 3 free throws during the season.

While Shannon Steiner (20) gets in the action to bring the ball into Eagle territory, Roxanne Studer (30) and Kelly Sautter (4) get ready to help put the ball up for 2 points.

"I've got it!!" shouts Roxanne Studer (30) hopefully as she struggles to get a grasp on the basketball. Roxanne played 37 quarters during the season.

Giving pep talks was only part of the job for Coach Judy Brause who also had to condition the girls and spend long hours every night at practice. Team members huddled around her are (counter-clockwise) Roxanne Studer, Kelly Sautter, Shannon Steiner, Justine Harris taking a water break from a tough game, Amy Crum (34), JoAnn Leonhardt, Jill Erwin, Kim Clady, and Traci Keller.

SENIORS GO OUT

Bill Hartman is in the starting position for the backstroke event. His best time of the season was 1:08.39. He swims the IM also in a time of 2:39.04.

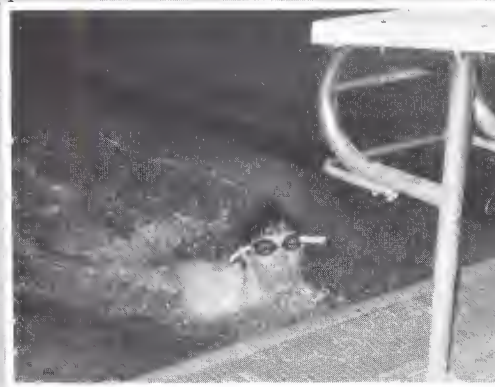

Brian Houk chopped more than .02 of a second off Rod Gyurke's time to set a new school record in the 100 Breaststroke with a time of 1:06.02. The heartbreaker for the season came when he broke his own record only to be disqualified for taking too many strokes under the water! Brian also helps the team by swimming in various relays.

Ty Hoyles takes a seat between events. Ty is seated 7th in the Top Ten All-Time Swimmers in the 500 Free, with the time of 5:34.44 which he swam during the home meet against Ontario. He is also seated 8th in the 200 Free swam against Galion at home with the time of 2:02.56. As you can see, Ty prefers his own pool.

"Hey everybody! Listen up!!" Coach Jarvis gives his usual pep talk before a meet.

Senior Scott Ferrell was the boys Most Valuable swimmer. He holds the 50 Free record with a 23.20 and placed 10th at Districts. During the season he also swam the 100 Free with a time of 55.65, the Medley Relay, and 100 Back in a time of 1:09.

The girls team size doubled this year, while both teams were stronger than in past years. Adverse weather conditions kept both teams from having the really successful season they were capable of.

WASHES AWAY

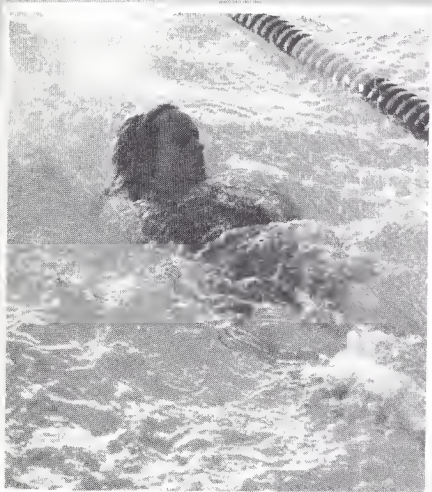

This is Noel Chase's last year as she gets off to a fast start in her event. She holds many records, which are listed on the scoreboard on page 86, and is ranked 2nd in the 200 Free on the All-Time Top Ten list.

Getting a start at the sound of the buzzer, Susan Weithman dives into her event. She holds the Backstroke record of 1:10.08, is ranked 2nd in the IM, and is a member of the record-holding 400 Free and Medley relay teams.

Junior diver Amy Burger ranks 2nd on the All-Time Top Ten list. She received her highest score of 159.65 while diving against Malabar.

LaChelle swims her event—100 yd. Back where she is ranked 3rd on the All-Time Top Ten list. She is also ranked 5th in the 50 Free and 4th in the IM.

Ranked 5th in the IM, and 6th in the Fly on the All-Time Top Ten list, Tracy Seif swims her 50 yd. Back in the IM.

Working hard and loving it, Tracie Escue swims in the 100, 200, and 500 Free. In that order, she is ranked 7th, 6th, and 4th on the All-Time Top Ten list.

WINNING

Eddie Eagle and the varsity cheerleaders strut over to the visitors' side to say Hi to the visiting cheerleaders. Representing our school is one of the responsibilities of our cheerleaders and they always do a very good job of welcoming our guests.

Now on the stage, modeling their cheerleading uniforms, are our four glamorous freshman cheerleaders. Along with yelling for the freshman basketball team, they also give the varsity team plenty of support!

"Give me an E-A-G-L-E-S. What've you got? EAGLES!!!" The first quarter is over and Mickey, Sarah, Kellie, Darla, Ann, and Diane try to get the parents into the swing of things. With a lot of encouragement from the students and the cheerleaders, "the wave" finally progressed all the way to the parents' side of the gymnasium this year.

Our school, which on some days is a very cold one, welcomed the ever-famous Blanket Day on which lots of students participated. Diane Thompson and Michelle Spangler helped think up the idea for one of the cheerleaders' "special days".

WAVE OF SUCCESS

There's never a dull moment on the sidelines, even if there's a time out! With some help from the pep band, the varsity and reserve cheerleaders get together to do "Sloopy".

FRESHMEN CHEERLEADERS BACK Elaine Gebhardt, Barb Bowin, and Anissa Groves, FRONT Heather Weir.

What's this? A new member on the cheerleading squad? At many games Sarah, Mr. Froelich's daughter, charmed the crowd and psyched them all up with a little help from Aren Rowles.

Garbed in their trusty sweats, Lynn Huber and Mrs. Grove goof off a bit after a tough practice. The cheerleaders have to spend an awful lot of their own spare time after school and in the summer preparing their routines.

Third baseman Rob Sand, shortstop Mickey Zwayer, second baseman Troy Hoyles, first baseman Andy Sloan and pitcher Troy Shawber congratulate themselves on a fine job of fielding in the 16-10 loss to Crestline.

Second baseman Duane Rios and first baseman Jon Crall stay alert in the 8-7 win over the Wynford Royals. Duane hit .294 while Jon hit .133 for the season.

GIRLS SWING

As Vicki Cole steps to the plate, other teams shudder in their shoes. Vicki hit .556 this year and was named most valuable for the fourth year in a row. She was named to the All-NCC 1st team for her catching expertise. Kathy Foreman warms up on deck to help out the team with her .379 batting average.

Cindy Flock, who batted .267, cheers Jeni Radebaugh on in a close game. Jeni batted .254 for the season with a fielding percentage of .910. On-deck-batter Jackie Clutter hit .243 for the year.

Hopefully Robyne Williams isn't facing as good a pitcher as she was early in the season. She set a new school record of 24 strike outs in 25 innings while hitting .527 and being credited with 26 RBI's. She was selected to the All-NCC 1st team.

TIMES THAT

It looks as though Scott Ferrell and his dad Bill had their eyes set on Columbus early in the season. Scott performed in several track and field events during the season, but really came on strong in the 200M run at the end of the year. He set a new school record of 22.5 at Oak Harbor and ran that time again to win the race at the Regionals. He placed 9th in the state competition.

The first leg of any relay is important. It is Ty Hoyles' job to get the team off to a good start and make a good hand off—and he's good at his job! Ty's split of 2:01 was one of 4 reasons the team was able to set a new school record in the 2-mile relay.

Ramon Shealy and Chris Roseberry finished 4th and 5th in the 3200 M run against Mt. Gilead and Mohawk. Ramon improved his time greatly by running a 10:31 and finishing first against Carey, while Chris ran an 11:24 at Wynford.

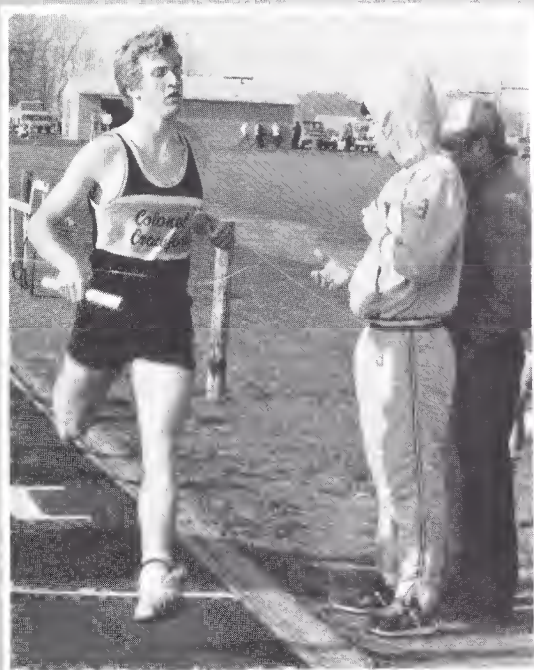

Hand offs are a crucial part of any relay team effort. Rick Balliett and Ramon Shealy, the middle half of the very successful 2-mile relay team, start another exchange.

TRY MEN'S SOLES

Early in the season Tom Rossman (right) ran the high hurdles in a time of 19.1. He shaved 2 seconds off that time, running 17.1 at the district in Bellevue. Randy Sandlin (left) was consistent most of the season running 20.1.

LEFT: Jay Petty runs the fine anchor leg of the 2-mile relay for a win at Wynford. This team of Hoyles, Balliett, Shealy, and Petty set a new school record of 8:40.9 at Ontario.

NCC CHAMPIONSHIP

Todd Hout's best discus throw of the season was caught by the photographer as he threw 105'0" against Mt. Gilead and Mohawk at home.

RIGHT: Chris Harris is shown high jumping at the Wynford meet where the wind causes its own set of problems. His best jump of the year was 6'5" against Carey.

Lito Belardo improved his long jump distance to 19'1" during the season.

RIGHT: Bill Hartman, Jay Petty, Ty Hoyles, and Rick Balliett were members of the 3200 M relay team that ran a time of 8:39.0 during the season. Bill runs the first leg of the race.

Mike Hedrick ran the hurdles in 46.3 against Mt. Gilead; however, 45.5 was his best time of the season.

Substantial injuries and a tougher-than-usual schedule resulted in a disappointing season for some, but several team members accomplished great things.

Ty Hoyles' time of 2:09.6 in the 880 yd. run against Mt. Gilead earned him second place in the event. His best time of 2:03.1 came at the District meet in Bellevue where Petty beat him out of qualifying for the Regionals with a lean at the tape!

This vault of Ted Heinlen's was 10'6" and tied him for second place against Mt. Gilead. His best vault of this season was 11'0" at the County meet.

Coach Cauley supervises the "fun" part of track—exercising and conditioning indoors while waiting for the weather to clear.

Justine Harris is a member of both the 400M and 800M relay teams. Here in the 400, Justine, along with other team members Anissa Groves, Jenny Benedict, and Heather Weir won the event against Mt. Gilead with a time of 57.19. She anchored the team when they ran 55.5 against Carey.

In a home meet against Mt. Gilead Amy Sand shows her hurdling style by placing second in the 300M hurdles with a time of 59.29.

Roni Cress and Cinnamon Eichhorn are the statisticians who accompanied the team to Mohawk. Other stats were Amy Lutz and Tami Reager, while Diana Sharp was the manager.

Anissa Groves ran the first leg of the 800 M relay against Mohawk. That team consisting of Anissa, Nicole Diebler, Michelle Spangler, and Justine Harris finished first with a time of 2:02. Anissa also ran the first leg of the 400 M relay, running with teammates Justine Harris, Lisa Scott, and Jenny Benedict. The event was won by CC in a time of 57.8.

A lot of people are always looking for their "place in the sun"; however, during a track meet the sun can be tiring. Our girls find some welcome shade behind the bleachers and try to rest for the upcoming track events.

MAIN EVENTS

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: DARE TO WITNESS THE MAGNIFICENT, THRILLING, MOST DRAMATIC, EXTRA VAGANT, MEMORABLE EVENTS.

ROBYNE REIGNS OVER EAGLES NEST

The Homecoming ceremonies of 1984 will be remembered for a long time, especially by Queen Robyne Williams, her court, and by the Seniors for whom it has been a special event but will now take on meaning as the "come home" in following years. The Homecoming game was played against Riverdale; it was an ecstatic night as the Eagles were victorious. The dance had been awaited since the beginning of the school year as it was the first dance for students to attend. The JVS Sound played popular songs like: "You're the Inspiration" and "Wake Me Up Before You Go-Go". It was truly an event to remember.

HOMECOMING QUEEN-ROBYNE WILLIAMS has been actively involved in softball winning the Coach's award, being on the NCC 2nd team, and winning a varsity letter. She has also served at the prom as a sophomore, been elected as a member of the Student Council, and has been an office aid—all while holding down a job at Kentucky Fried Chicken in Galion. Being selected as Homecoming Queen along with all of her other activities has given Robyne a memorable Senior year to reflect back on.

SENIOR ATTENDANT—ANN JOHNSON has been involved in band, track, football and basketball cheerleading, and Student Council. She was named FFA Queen and PBL Queen. She has been very helpful to her community by being involved in the Jerry Lewis Telethon and the Muscular Dystrophy Bike-a-thon.

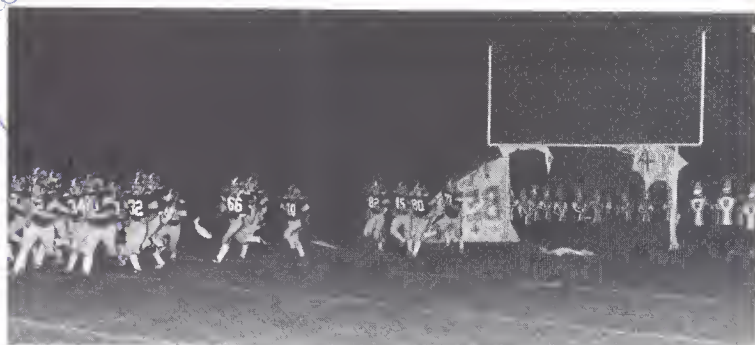

JUNIOR ATTENDANT—MICKEY SPANGLER has been a football and basketball cheerleader and has lettered in track. She has also been class vice president and treasurer, a member of French Club, choir, and treasurer of Future Teachers. She attends the 16th United Methodist Church.

SOPHOMORE ATTENDANT—AMY SAND is actively involved in volleyball, track, weightlifting, Student Council, French Club, girl's swim team, and Flag Corps. She has also been a candy striper, member of 4-H, and treasurer of her church youth group.

FRESHMEN ATTENDANT—JUSTINE HARRIS is a member of the Student Council, plays reserve basketball and volleyball, and is on the girl's track team. She is also an active member of the youth fellowship at the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church.

Making the grand entrance at the Homecoming game is senior attendant Ann Johnson. She was escorted by Brian Kalb in a corvette driven by Mr. Dale Hoyles. Eddie Eagle was there to applaud the queen and her court.

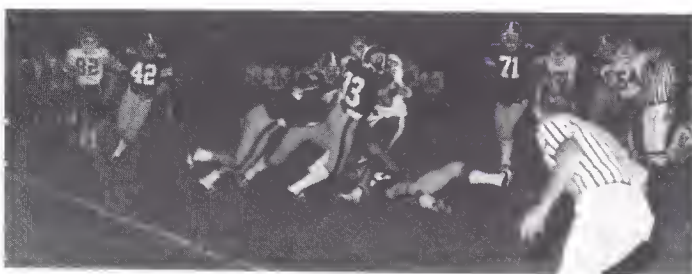

Another even bigger grand entrance was made by the Eagles football team which was prepared and pepped up to win. The cheerleaders spent a lot of time to make a special run-thru for the players, and the band formed their usual home-game funnel to introduce the team.

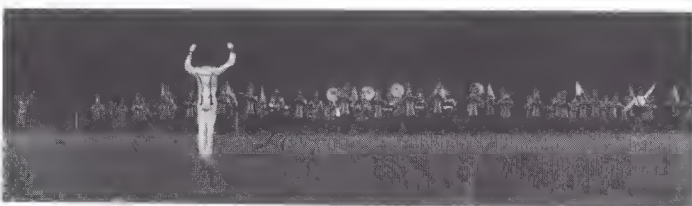

Cheerleaders Sarah Weir and Dawn Erwin take time to congratulate Queen Robyne and her court during the game. The Student Council was responsible for the beautiful fall decorations where they were seated.

With the flag corps saluting her, Queen Robyne was escorted across the field by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Williams. A letter written by Robyne was read to the football crowd thanking everyone for making it a very special evening for her.

Victory was the name of the game for the Eagles! The Homecoming game was played against Riverdale and the final score was 17-0.

The band worked extra hard to create a special Homecoming show in honor of the queen. Graduated members of the 1984 band were surprised when "Sing, Sing, Sing" was brought to life again.

Darla Reynolds, Amy Lutz, and the other cheerleaders kept the spirit high at the Homecoming and cheered the team to a smashing victory.

Queen Robyne and her escort, Tim Sand, were the center of attraction during the queen's dance held in honor of her and her court.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Queen and her court along with their escorts are: Ann Johnson and Jay Stuckman, Mickey Spangler and Darin "Duke" Miller, Queen Robyne Williams and Tim Sand, Amy Sand and Lito Belardo, and Justine Harris and Troy Shawber.

ABOVE: Taking some time to relax and to enjoy some refreshments are Roy Hughes and his date. Tickets for the dance were $2.50/single, $4.00/couple and $1 extra if bought at the door. RIGHT: Enjoying the night, Rhonda O'Neal and Kevin Koge danced the night away.

LEFT: NOW WHAT? That seems to be the expression on the faces of these newcomers to the Homecoming Dance. After awhile even these four freshmen, Nathan Fannin and date Tracy Seif and Eric Sparks and date Faith Shearer, had a great time dancing. Also pictured are Cindy Lambert and Ryan Heinlen with their dates. BELOW: FOG and FLASHING LIGHTS gave the music by JBS Sound a nice extra touch. Cindy Britton dances as she waits for her Prince Charming to come and sweep her off into the fog.

GIRLS JUST WANT

The triumphant white team who scored the only touchdown of the night along with their coach, Mr. "WALKING TALL" Hudson. The girls making up the team are: (back row) Stacey "SPACY" Semon, Mary "TWIN-KLE TOES" Wendelken, Shelly "BLOND BOMBER" Kisor, Robyne "TOO TALL" Williams, Vicki "ANIMAL" Cole, Missy "WHITE LIGHTNING" Frost, Traci "TANK" Rank. (front) Laraine "NIGHT TRAIN" Manning, Dawn "WOULD" Erwin, Lisa "SACK" Sopher, Jackie "OF ALL TRADES" Stuckert, and Ann "BIG HANDS" Johnson.

The black team coached by Mr. "BILLY WHITE SHOES" Ferrell, had a great time even though they were defeated. Team members are: (back row) Cindy "WANGO BANGO" Wilcox, Noel "BUTTERFLY" Chase, Kelly "ANIMAL TAMER" Mullins, Tammy "TOUCHDOWN" Collene, Malynne "BUBBA" Keiter, Kim "TOO THIN" Patterson, Darla "BOOM BOOM" Reynolds, Tina "T-N-T" Gingery. (front) Jackie "HEARTLESS" Hart, Nancy "KNOW-IT-ALL" Schimpf, Kim "THE POLE" Skowronski, Lori "THE STREAK" Striker, Jenny "HARD NOSE" Horning, and Amy "ZAP" Zaebs.

These five students were chosen as the "HIT" men to reign over the Powderpuff game. They are: Larry Agin, Tim Rossman, Rodge Wilson, Chris Harris, and Ted Heinlen. Chris Harris was voted King by the student body while the others served as his court. Powderpuff fans pictured are Brad Kocher and Mickey Spangler.

This year's Powderpuff game, where the senior girls become ruthless football players, was a huge success. Coaches Ferrell and Hudson prepared their teams every night during the week of the game and tried to teach them some sneaky plays that would help them score a touchdown. The Powderpuff game was sponsored by the Student Council which operated a concession stand with Mr. Kalb Bar-B-Queing hot dogs. Senior Chris Harris was crowned "Powderpuff King" at the game from a group of five senior guys. Scoring the only touchdown of the night, the white team fought hard to defend their seven points, and it paid off with a victory. This game showed football as it was meant to be played—strictly for an evening of fun and good times.

HOO-RAH-RAY! Look out girls who are trying out as cheerleaders, Brett McCartney, Daron Watts, and Scott Ferrell have what it takes to lead a team to victory as they did for the white team.

TO HAVE FUN

Taking a night off from doing what they love most—grading papers, Mrs. Amicone and Miss Thorne help out at the powder puff game by holding the markers.

Keeping the spirit high, cheerleaders for the black team, Jon Cress, Jeff Sandlin, and David Fox lead their fans in cheers although their team didn't win.

SET-HUT-HELP! is what you might have expected to hear from two teams of girls playing football, but actually they were pretty rough and complained of aches, pains, and bruises for several days after. Mr. Bruner is shown officiating the game.

The pep band also got together to come out and support the girls and offer extra entertainment.

Darla Reynolds and Kim Patterson both of the black team took the opportunity to congratulate the King and his court.

“EXIT THE BODY”

Tony Lipscomb works on rolling the paint on the walls of the scenery.

Miss Hoffman gives directions on what color goes where on the two-tone walls as Tony Lipscomb, Diego Illingworth, John Ehrhart, and Barb Bowin try to keep awake on this early Saturday morning to listen.

Mike Motter, whose talent was not only shown in his acting but also in his outstanding carpentry, puts the finishing touches on the closet which he and Mr. Spencer built.

EXIT THE BODY PLAY CAST SEATED Barb Bowin, Kelly Mullins, Andrew Koons, Cindy Wilcox, Tony Lipscomb. STANDING John Ehrhart, Rod Hadsell, Mike Motter, Elaine Gebhardt, Cinnamon Eichhorn.

On April 11 and 12, the Colonel Crawford Drama Dept. presented "Exit the Body," a mystery farce, under the direction of Miss Cheryl Hoffman. However, before the final production could be performed, many long hours of practice were put in by the cast members:

Lillian Seymour Kelly Mullins
 Jenny Elaine Gebhardt
 Randolph John Ehrhart
 Helen O'Toole .. Barb Bowin
 Kate Bixley Cinnamon Eichhorn
 Crane Hammond Cindy Wilcox
 Vernon Cookley Mike Motter
 Lyle Rogers . Andrew Koons
 Philip Smith Tony Lipscomb
 Richard Hammond Rod Hadsell

Randolph, a sneaky crook, and Jenny, a policewoman posing as the maid, agree to work together to find the missing diamonds that were left by the previous owner who died.

Crane Hammond, mystery writer, takes a relaxing break on the couch of her New England cottage that she rented for the summer. Her secretary, Kate Bixley, who is used to the city life tells her what she thinks of this new "deserted" area.

Lillian explains to Crane that no one must know that she is married to Lyle Rogers because her ex-husband is trying to get their Mexican divorce set aside, causing a scandal.

Vernon Cookley, the local sheriff, taxi driver, sexton of the church, and dog catcher, has a chat with Helen O'Toole, the local real estate lady, about having their own little search party to find the missing diamonds.

Mrs. Hammond and Kate meet their maid for the summer, Jenny, who possesses a real country charm that just might drive Kate up the wall before their stay is over.

PRACTICE MAKES

"And he was hanging there just like that!" says Crane Hammond just before she faints. In "Exit the Body" the closet was a popular place for bodies to be hanging which gave Crane quite a few surprises.

Philip Smith, who is bandaged from a hit on the head, hands Crane a drink. After she hangs up, Crane is startled to see Kate coming down the stairs because Crane thought that she had given her the drink.

Kate explains to Crane that Mr. Cookley is drunk in her living room because he told her to mix everything at the bar together.

ABOVE: Because no one is supposed to know that Lyle is really Lillian's husband, everyone is told that he is Crane's husband. Mr. Cookley has just given Lyle a gun to protect "his wife" and her secretary because Helen O'Toole has seen a prowler. RIGHT: After Philip Smith had been hit on the head, he couldn't remember anything about who he was or where he was. Philip gets the bright idea that another hit on the head might help, so Crane attempts to do so.

PERFECT PLAY

Crane enjoys reading before she goes to bed. However, while she was reading, all the little search parties for the diamonds were sneaking throughout her cottage.

"All right everybody! Hands up!" shouts Randolph as he enters from the closet with a gun. After Crane had revealed that the diamonds (ice) were in the ice (cubes), Randolph stepped in to claim them for himself.

Helen O'Toole, who is "the Boss", secretly searches through Crane's cottage at 2 a.m. for the missing diamonds.

As Crane tries to explain the events of the day, the situation about the diamonds, and the reason that Lyle is her so-called husband, Richard is attacked by Randolph. When Crane turns to give Richard a kiss, she faints when she sees Randolph standing there with a gun.

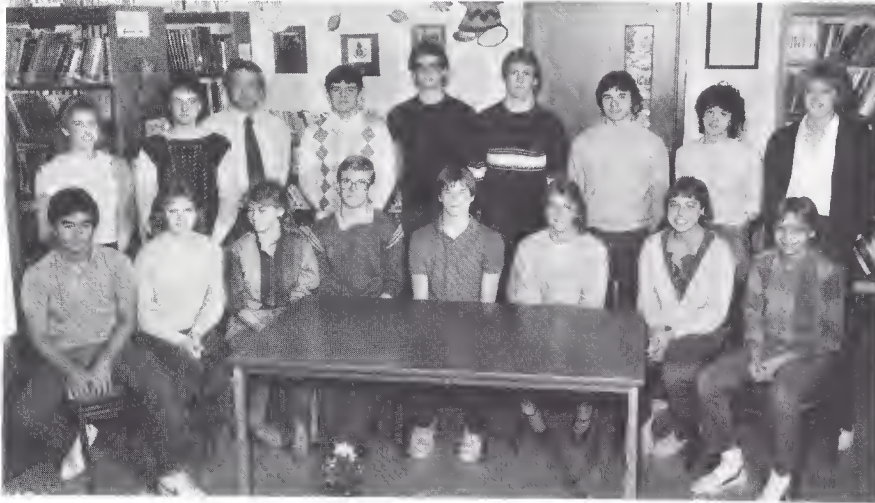

To add to the confusion, the real Mr. Hammond showed up after leaving his conference to be with Crane. Now she had two husbands, Richard (her real husband) and Lyle.

After Philip was hit on the head by Randolph, he realized that he was a detective working on the diamond case. When he recovered from the blow, Philip threw Randolph to the floor and arrested him. It was too bad for Randolph who "almost had the ice!"

1984—Election Year! Well, Colonel Crawford High has its own elections also. Besides class officers, the students elect a Student Council each year that consists of two boys and two girls from each class. They serve as representatives who accomplish projects for the student body as a whole. To raise money, the Student Council sponsors the Homecoming festivities which gives them a nice budget to work with. They are in charge of the Open House each year where they help the students' parents follow their child's schedule; they also furnish refreshments. Other activities that the Student Council takes on include: the Powder-puff game for the Senior girls, the holiday and other assemblies, spotlighting new Honor Society members, a Student Council exchange where members go to other schools to get new ideas, and also Graduation. They also helped in saving the Statue of Liberty by sending a donation of $20.

HONORING OUR OWN

It is my pleasure to confer upon you membership into the National Honor Society! These words came as a pleasant surprise for 8 Seniors and 12 Juniors. The tapping of new members in the gym was held on April 11. The formal induction to which parents, faculty, and students were invited was held on April 22 in the cafeteria.

The Honor Society's new advisor is Mrs. Barb Diebler. Officers are: Chris Roseberry, President; Rodge Wilson, Vice President; Andrew Koons, Secretary; and Stacey Semon, Treasurer. The NHS had their annual mum sales at Homecoming and Parents' Night. They also spent a day with area NHS's at Galion High School to share different ideas.

Tim Rossman had the pleasure of congratulating his brother Tom on being selected for membership into the honor society.

TODAY'S STUDENTS

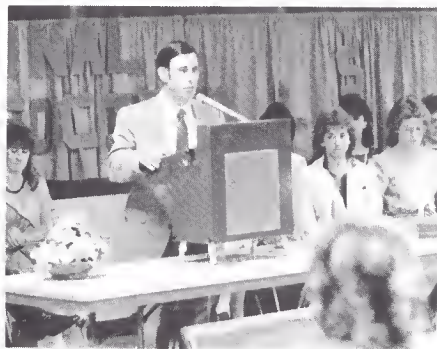

Andrew Koons administers the National Honor Society Oath during the candle-lighting ceremony.

National Honor Society advisor Mrs. Barb Diebler welcomes everyone to the formal induction of new members.

Chris Roseberry explains that these new members were chosen because of their qualities of leadership, scholarship, character, and service. After Chris spoke, four NHS members expounded on each quality as he lit the corresponding-colored candle.

Mr. Hudson adds his welcome to the ceremony and introduces the speaker for the evening, Mr. Glen Cole.

Crawford County Treasurer and former Superintendent and teacher in the Colonel Crawford Schools, Glen Cole, gives a short message to the members being inducted. He told the students to "know who you are," "know where you're at," and "know where you're going"

WELCOME ABOARD THE

Tina Kanable and Michelle King and all the other "artists" didn't just dabble in the paint because they had many palm trees and Caribbean scenes to paint.

Aren Rowles, who put in many hours working on decorating for the Prom, is shown putting the finishing touches of glitter on the mural reading "Caribbean Queen".

Matt Feasel and Amy Cooper work on stapling the painted murals to the frames.

With only week to do their decorating, the Juniors began getting things in order right away by putting up the ceiling and getting the wall paintings finished and hung.

"Would you like to buy your Prom tickets?"—These are the famous words of Sheryl Young, Denise McCartney, and Tami Ashbridge who gave up their lunch period to sell tickets.

A trip on the Caribbean Queen—a voyage never to be forgotten! On May 18, the Junior-Senior Prom, "Caribbean Queen" became a long-awaited reality. To begin their night out, most couples went out to dinner. Then at 8:00, it was off to the dance at CCHS held until midnight with music being furnished by JVS Sound. Prom-goers were then given an hour to change for bowling at Crawford Lanes until 3:00 a.m. Everyone could then come back to the school to dance, to watch "Streets of Fire" in the cafeteria, or to go swimming. Even though this fantastic event has sailed by, it will live on in our memories.

Supervising the prom, Miss Hoffman relies very much on the ideas and suggestions like the ones she is getting from juniors Jenny Benedict and Tony Lipscomb.

CARIBBEAN QUEEN

Welcome aboard the Caribbean Queen for a night of romance! This is the uniquely-designed entrance at the 1985 Junior-Senior Prom.

The cruise director who organized the evening, Miss Hoffman, is between two of the tropical servers, Barb King and Amy Harmon.

Garry Williams and Jodi Luke whisper sweet nothings as they dance.

Matt Robinson and Kellie Robinson have a fantastic time just being together.

Darla Reynolds and Kenny Gledhill had a great time shakin' up the dance floor.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sparks toast a glass of punch to Miss Hoffman's superb job on the prom decor.

SETTING SAIL FOR A

Jenny Benedict adds the finishing and crowning touch as Dawn Erwin was announced as Prom Queen.

The Queen and her court: Melissa Frost, Cherri Sinnes, Queen Dawn Erwin, Ann Johnson, and Kim Skowronski.

Cherri Sinnes had a memorable evening as she was also chosen as part of the prom court. She danced with Rodge Wilson during the Queen's dance.

ABOVE: Congratulations Kim! As Mickey Spangler hands Kim Skowronski a bouquet of flowers for being part of the prom court, Ann Johnson and Missy Frost, who are also on the court, smile as they look on. RIGHT: Also enjoying the evening and the starry sky are couples Toby Coffman with date Tammy Collene and Ted Heinlen with date Sonya Sauselen.

Taking a walk outside by the fountain to enjoy the renovated court yard are James Bentley and date, Queen Dawn Erwin.

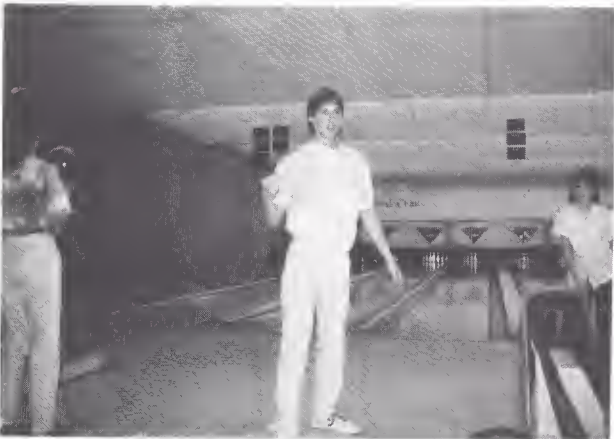

NIGHT IN PARADISE

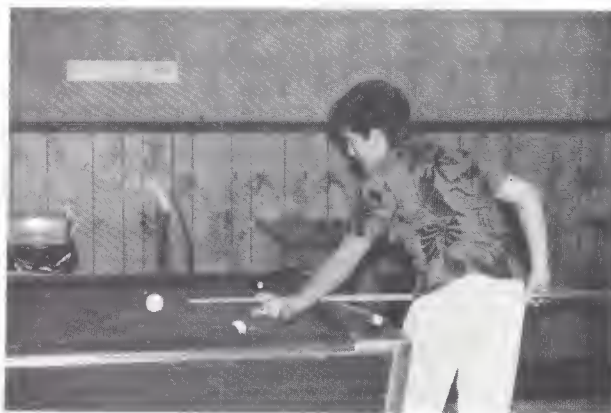

Malynne Keiter and Doug Hedrick, Yvette Black and Marvin James, Karla Kocher and Rod Gyurke, all couples at the Prom, enjoyed the music by JVS Sound and spent a lot of time on the dance floor.

Could these three ladies possibly be Cinderella's step-sisters! No—They're too pretty! Actually they are Sheryl Young, Jackie Hart, and Traci Rank having a ball at the Prom.

Todd Martin is definitely excited about his bowling games at the after-prom.

Diane Thompson and her date, Tim Dennison, had matching shirts for after-prom like many other couples. They decided that a game of pool would be more fun than bowling.

It's chow time during the movie, "Streets of Fire", which was shown on a large TV screen in the cafeteria. Pictured are Tim Dennison; Julie Kehres and date Shane Ash; Jim Dennison and date Traci Escue; Duke Miller; and Heather Weir.

Andrew Koons and date, Stacey Semon, take advantage of the snacks at the school when everyone returned after bowling at Crawford Lanes.

ARTISTIC HANDS

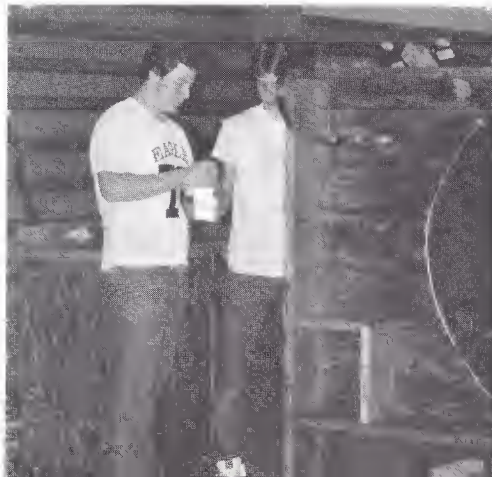

To have an art show it takes students who like to draw and do woodworking many hours, and a supervisor. Mr. Spencer, the man who puts the show together, is shown helping Kim Patterson with her cedar chest she built in Hobby Woods.

Industrial Arts teacher Bernard Spencer has been promoting his department with an art show for over 25 years. The show features work done in Mechanical Drawing, Woodworking, Metals, Industrial Arts I, Hobby Woods and other classes in the Industrial Arts Department. The Home Economics department takes this opportunity to show off the varied items produced in its classes; while Mrs. Rosalind Rittenour can show the diversity that her art students have in their work. She shows oils, watercolors, pottery, calligraphy—all forms of art done by her students. This is a good opportunity for community members to see how talented our students really are in areas that are not so obvious to others.

Todd Reiter and Rob Sand carry a bench into the gym to help set up for the art show while Nathan Fannin holds the door open.

CREATE FINE ART

Lisa Flitcraft and Mike Hedrick hold their own creations as they stand amidst other Home Economics items on display.

Hobby Woods is a favorite course taken by senior girls. Most of the gals choose to make cedar chests. Shelly Kisor and Jenny Horning hold down one of the many hope chests on display at the show.

Freshman Sharon Redmon points to her series of apples on display as part of the Art Department's contributions to the show.

Toni Griffey and Theresa Carroll model their clothes that are on display. At the end of a long day, Theresa chose to give up her shoes!

Tina Raifsnider is proud to display her works along with other art students.

Academic and Service Awards Night—the night that scholars and students who serve their community are recognized. So many times these people fail to get recognition for all their work because they don't get their picture in the paper for getting all A's or for getting a small scholarship. So Colonel Crawford has set up a night where these efforts are honored. Many certificates and many scholarships are awarded; in fact, Colonel Crawford students received over $70,000 in scholarship awards. Entertainment was provided by "Touch of Class" which sang the National Anthem and "Feel the Power". This was an event that gave the honor and glory to those who excel in academics.

Kevin Creger follows in his brother David's footsteps to be awarded the Outstanding Worker in Crawford County's work study program. This is the second award for Kevin who is pictured with his teacher Mr. Parrott.

GRADUATION: A TIME FOR JOY

Senior class chairperson, Mrs. Sparks, with the help of Mr. Bruner got the graduates in order and ready to march in.

Boom! The crash of the drum starts off Pomp and Circumstance which is the signal for parents and friends to honor the graduating class as the seniors march into the gymnasium.

The ceremony has just begun but it's almost over—that is—high school life is almost over as the graduating class of 1985 has its ceremony. Graduates pictured are Shelly Kisor, Karla Kocher, and Aaron Fogle.

Graduation—a time of joy and a time of sorrow. The joy comes when the graduates realize that they have succeeded in high school and because they have many new opportunities. The sorrow comes because the graduates must say good-bye to friends that they have had for possibly thirteen years—a good-bye that may be their last one. The 1985 graduating class of Colonel Crawford had five valedictorians whose knowledge will be missed and also many outstanding athletes whose talents will also be greatly missed. The Commencement was held on Sunday afternoon on June 9 at 2:30 p.m. It was a beautiful ceremony for the seniors which will live on in their memories.

Senator, Paul Pfeifer spoke about "the road not taken." Throughout his speech he made it more interesting by using graduates as examples of qualities and traits valuable in life: humor, humility, hunger, happiness, service to humanity, and hope. He used the entire class as hope—our hope for the future.

A TIME FOR SORROW

Rev. Rose Wilson, mother of graduate Rodge Wilson, gave the invocation. Rev. John Roseberry, brother of graduate Chris Roseberry, gave the benediction.

Traci Rank proudly accepts her Golden Pass at graduation for receiving nine sports awards. Others receiving the Golden Pass are: Malynne Keiter, Ty Hoyles, Tina Gingery, Kim Skowronski, Vicki Cole, and Chris Harris.

As he tried to get the ceremony off to a good start, Mr. Hudson had a little trouble with the microphones. Other than that is was a very memorable event for everyone, especially the seniors.

Receiving the Award of Distinction and graduating Summa Cum Laude is Kelly Mullins. Other graduating with this honor are: Lee Belardo, James Bentley, Dawn Erwin, Chris Rosenberry, Nancy Schimpf, Tim Rossman, Andrew Koons, Daron Watts, Tim Sand, Chris Harris, Stacey Semon, Jay Petty, Mary Wendelken, Rodge Wilson, Chris Roe, Karla Kocher, Ramon Shealy, Darla Reynolds, Karen Bowin, Greg Sutton, and Aaron Fogle.

READY FOR THE FUTURE

Mr. Neal congratulates Jenny Horning, secretary, as she is the first one to head for the platform. Mr. Neal and Mr. Bruner kept the graduates spaced evenly.

The "turning of the tassel," the greatly-awaited moment, is like turning to a new page of a book for graduating seniors who will begin new lives in diverse areas.

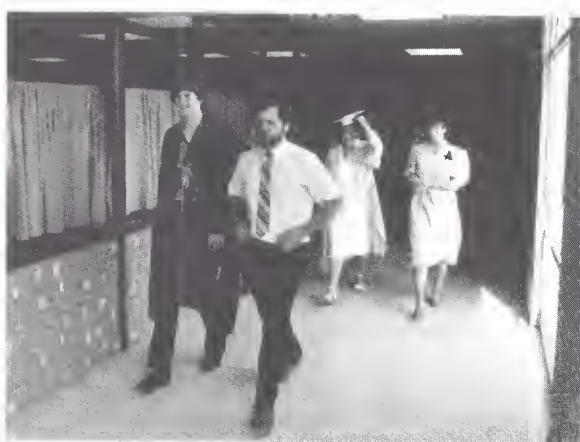

Graduating senior choir members joined in one last time as the choir sang "The Best in You and Me" from "Fame," arranged by Chris Roseberry. They also enjoyed singing the popular song "We Are the World" during the graduation ceremony.

This is it! It's all over now! Smiling along with all of the other seniors, Garry Williams is proud of his accomplishment.

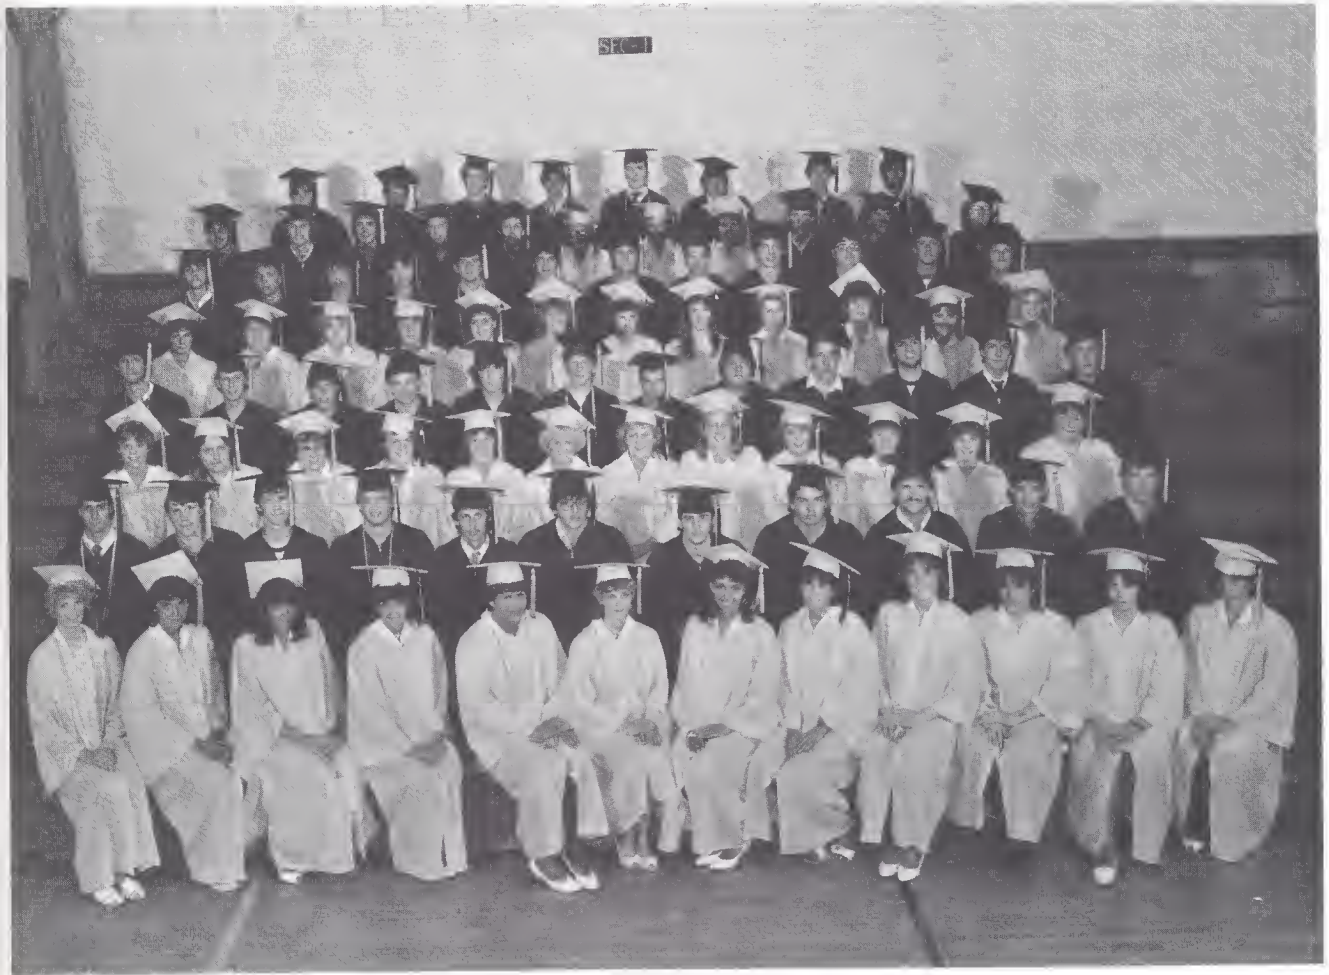

It's time to say good-bye in the hallway, possibly for the last time. Pictured after the ceremony are: Lori Striker, Lisa Sopher, Jackie Stuckert, and Todd Laipply with a friend.

As usual there are mixed emotions after graduation. For Denis Hoover, he's glad he won't have any more homework. For Mr. Huber (teachers are no exception), it's no more hard tests for a couple months. Also pictured are Barb Harris and Mrs. Grove.

WHATEVER IT MAY HOLD

The graduating class of 1985 had an unusual tie—one that has never happened and one that may never happen again—there were five valedictorians. They are: Nancy Schimpf and Dawn Erwin. BACK James Bentley, Lee Belardo, and Christopher Roseberry.

PPG Congratulates Seniors

PPG Industries Crestline plant and the 1985 Colonel Crawford High School graduating seniors share more than just the same community.

Both groups have reached a major milestone and share a special type of excitement.

For Crestline, that milestone is its 26th anniversary, which we celebrate this year. The Crestline glass fabricating plant is one of the more than 80 PPG plants serving diverse customers the world over.

Reaching this 26th birthday would not have been possible without the company's most valuable resource—its skilled and loyal employees, the hundreds of men and women working at PPG's Crestline plant.

So whether it's reaching twenty-six years of operations or graduating from high school, both are milestones that rate a very special recognition from all of us in 1985.

Freshman Todd Tompkins raised his average to 98 by the end of the season. He ended the year with his high series of 363. Jeremy Sherk's high series 324 and high game 129 helped keep his average at 84 for the year.

First-year bowler David Riedel ended the year with a 90 average. His high game of 106 gave him his high series of 332.

Greg Sulser, foreground, brought his average up to 137 with his high game 182 and high series 467; while Kenny Baker, in back, rolled a high game of 188 while bowling his high series of 479.

"Where's the food?" Senior choir member Vicki Cole hunts for food while continuing her job passing out forks.

"What's for supper Eagles?" Well, lots of yummy spaghetti, fresh garlic bread, plenty of greens; and of course, lots of delicious desserts. That's what was on the menu at the Senior Choir spaghetti supper.

YEARBOOK STAFF KNEELING Lisa Riedel, photographer; Diane McMichael; Kim Gasuras; Laraina Manring, copy; Amy Lutz, FFA; Beth McKibben, athletics; Missy Zellner, athletics; Tina Gingery, athletics; Becca Chase, athletics. STANDING Melody Klingel, groups; Mrs. Sparks, advisor; Amy Burger; Mickey Spangler, ads; Kellie Robinson, ads; John Ehrhart, personnel; Shelly Kisor, photographer; Rod Hadsell, copy; Lori Striker, ads; Denise Kemp, underclass; Teresa Carroll, underclass; Julie DeVore; Mary Howell, groups; Stacey Semon, ads; Andrew Koons, editor. Missing is Renee Sobers, underclass; Tami Ashbridge, athletics; Mark McGrew, photographer.

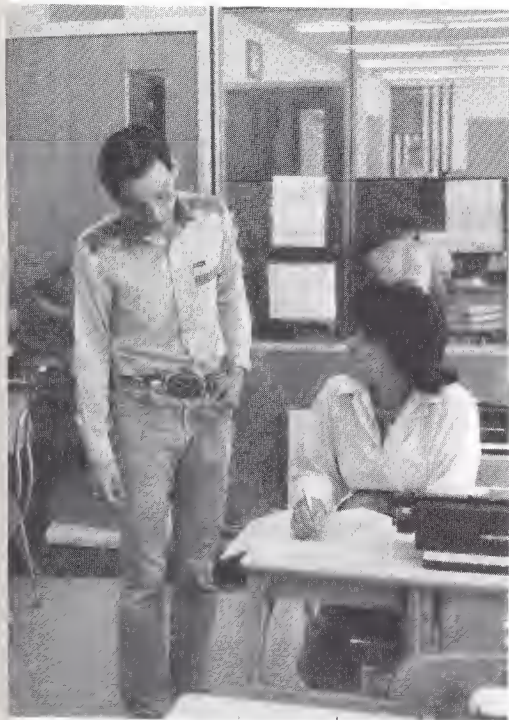

Yearbook staff members learn a lot about putting a book together at the annual fall workshop held at Pioneer. The staff—Rod Hadsell, John Ehrhart, Melody Klingel, Beth McKibben, Mary Jo Howell, Becca Chase, Renee Sobers, Andrew Koons, and Advisor Mrs. Sparks—was the only one to arrive in a limosine. The materials on the roof were the finishing touches to the new roof being paid for by the maintenance levy money voted for last year.

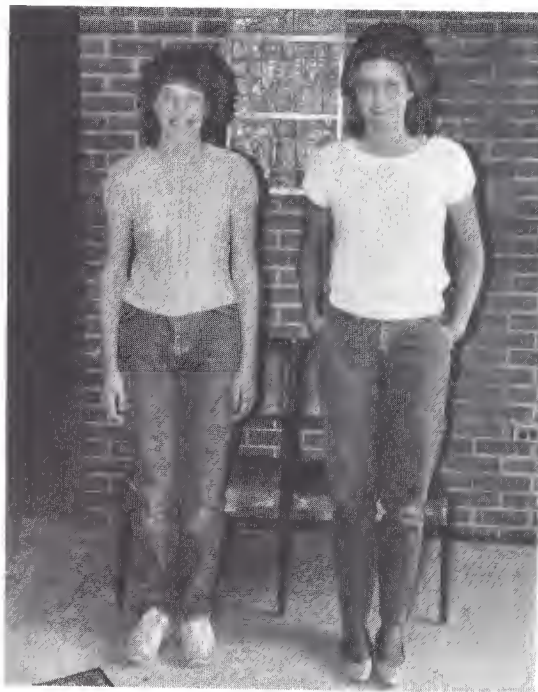

First-year yearbook staff member Denise Kemp agonizes over not having enough freshmen class candids and having to write copy for the ones she does have!

BEST STAFF ON EARTH

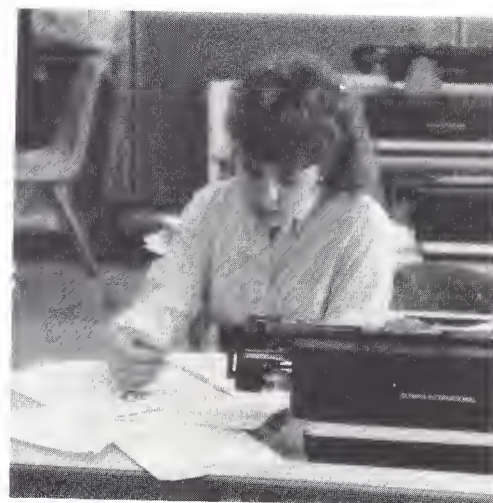

Tami Ashbridge, who came to Colonel Crawford during the year and was editor of the Defiance yearbook, talks with photographer Mark McGrew and gives him some ideas for candids to use in her layout.

Mary Jo Howell and Renee Sobers, both dedicated yearbook staffers, spent four days of their summer at a yearbook workshop at Dennison University. Besides working on layout designs and going to lectures, they also had pizza, bowling, and ice cream parties.

LEFT: Fitting copy between the pictures is something new the staff is trying to get a handle on. Mary Jo Howell and Teresa Carroll get some expert advice from Andrew on just how to figure copy. RIGHT: "Hello! Would you like to buy a CCHS yearbook ad?" Stacey Semon, Melody Klingel, and Mary Jo Howell must have had an "extra special" charm when they said these words because all three sold over $500 worth of ads. Mary Jo is missing from the photo. If you look real close in the window you'll see Mrs. Sparks taking the picture.

Freshmen staff member Becca Chase sifts through Mr. Jarvis' swim team sheets looking for the best times of each swimmer. Only after finding the fastest time can she begin to write copy for the swim team layout.

GETTING A CLOSER

FHA MEMBERS STANDING Aren Rowles, Michelle Phenicie, Diana Sharp, Barb King, Tammy Spears. SEATED Rachel Holtshouse, Tenia Spears, Roni Cress, Sara Schwam, Denise Kemp, Marc Dowler, Eunice Fox, Karen Bowin, Amy Harmon.

Diana Sharp takes a peek at the food that was served at the FFA banquet.

"Aren't we pretty?" This little girl is all dressed up in her smock getting ready to do something messy! Diana Sharp holds on to her sister to be sure she doesn't fall off the chair.

Mr. Parrott's daughter, Megan, had some fun in the Home Ec. class nursery school with Nancy Snyder and Theresa Russ.

LOOK AT REALITY

Aren Rowles gets out the sugar in preparation for the banquet.

Doesn't this look like fun? Diana Sharp, Rodney Hadsell, Lisa Roe, Janet Leonhardt, and Tonya Pollock help these little kids finger paint with shaving cream all over the table in the Home Ec. class.

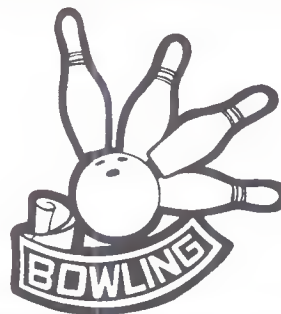

CHA/HERO OFFICERS Aren Rowles, President; Roni Cress, Historian and Newsreporter; Eunice Fox, Secretary, and Mrs. Amicone, advisor. Missing is David Fox, Vice President.

Nancy Snyder shows Brent Kalb some neat things you can do with shaving cream.

FARMERS PLAN-T

Being up there in that semi trailer full of fruit could be quite tempting, but the only thing Todd Guinther, Greg Lust, and Mark Cox are concerned with, for the moment, is getting it off the truck and into the shop.

The 1984-85 top citrus salespeople are pictured above. Agnes Lucius placed 3rd selling 58 boxes, Greg Lust 1st with 91½ boxes, and Amy Rowlinson 2nd with 89 boxes.

Greg Lust and Bruce McKibben compare answers after completing their tests at the District level of rural land judging.

The 1985-86 officer team for the chapter is made up of Jim Pfeiderer, Student Advisor; Todd Guinther, Reporter; Greg Lust, Vice President; Amy Rowlinson, President; Amy Lutz, Secretary; Greg Sulser, Treasurer; and Kevin Creger, Sentinel.

FOR GOLDEN FUTURE

Star Chapter Farmer Greg Sulser, Star Greenhand Amy Rowlinson, and Chapter President Greg Lutz welcome Michelle Stevens, State Secretary, as the banquet speaker.

Ron Burkhardt, of Burkhardt Farms, was awarded an appreciation plaque for his invaluable aid and assistance during the year.

ABOVE: FRONT—Mrs. Kit Rowlinson, mother of Amy Rowlinson, helped drive the long trip to Kansas City for the National FFA Convention.
